

PRIVACY POLICY (UK)

Introduction

Welcome to APPETITE's privacy policy.

APPETITE respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This privacy policy will inform you as to how we look after your personal data when you visit our website and our app (regardless of where you visit it from) and tell you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you. Please use the Glossary to understand the meaning of some of the terms used in this privacy policy.

1. Important information and who we are

Purpose of this privacy policy

This privacy policy aims to give you information on how APPETITE collects and processes your personal data through your use of this website and mobile app, including any data you may provide through when you sign up to our newsletter OR take part in a competition OR create an account to use the mobile app OR set up a user profile to use app features OR purchase a product or service.

Neither this website nor the app is intended for children, and we do not knowingly collect data relating to children.

It is important that you read this privacy policy together with any other privacy policy or fair processing policy we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This privacy policy supplements other notices and privacy policies and is not intended to override them.

Controller

TOJA. TJ Limited of C/O Mjb Avanti, Office 12 Epsilon House, West Road, Ipswich, Suffolk, England, IP3 9FJ, is the controller and responsible for your personal data (referred to as "APPETITE," "we", "us" or "our" in this privacy policy).

We have appointed a data privacy manager who is responsible for overseeing questions in relation to this privacy policy. If you have any questions about this privacy policy, including any requests to exercise your privacy rights, please contact the data privacy manager using the details set out below.

Contact details

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or our privacy practices, please contact our data privacy manager in the following ways:

Email address: dataprotection@appetiteapp.uk

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK regulator for data protection issues (www.ico.org.uk). We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO so please contact us in the first instance.

Changes to the privacy policy and your duty to inform us of changes

We keep our privacy policy under regular review. This version was last updated on 6 September 2024. Historic versions can be obtained by contacting us.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us.

Third-party links including booking facility

The website and the app include a link to the booking facility powered by Open Table and may include links to other third-party websites, plug-ins, and applications. Clicking on the booking link will allow Open Table to collect data about you.

If you click on other links or enable those other connections this may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and are not responsible for their privacy statements. When you leave our website, we encourage you to read the privacy policy of the website you visit.

2. The data we collect about you

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

We may collect, use, store and transfer distinct kinds of personal data about you which we have grouped together as follows:

Type of data	Description and examples
Identity	First name, maiden name, last name, username or similar identifier, marital status, title, date of birth and gender.
Contact	Billing address, delivery address, email address and telephone numbers.
Financial	Payment card details.
Transaction	Details about payments to and from you and other details of products and services you have ordered or purchased from us including promotions and offers.
Technical	Internet protocol (IP) address, your login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform, and other technology on the devices you use to access the website or the app.
Profile	Username and password, purchases, bookings, or orders made by you, your interests, preferences, feedback, and survey responses.
Usage	Information about how you use our website, app, products, promotions, offers and services.
Marketing and Communications	Preferences in receiving marketing from us and our third parties and your communication preferences.
Geolocation Data	Information about where you are when you are using the app which we collect if you select the option to allow us to do so. If you have selected 'Always allow', it includes the information about where you are at all times.
Special Categories of Personal Data	Details about your allergies, dietary requirements and restrictions and any other relevant information concerning your health which we would otherwise not be aware of. These kinds of information may be or may allow us to infer information about your race or ethnicity, religious beliefs and health.

We also collect, use, and share Aggregated Data such as statistical or demographic data for any purpose. Aggregated Data could be derived from your personal data but is not considered personal data in law as this data will not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your Usage Data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website or app feature. However, if we combine or connect Aggregated Data with your personal data so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be used in accordance with this privacy policy.

We do not collect any other Special Categories of Personal Data about you (this includes details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sex life, sexual orientation, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health, and genetic and biometric data). Nor do we collect any information about criminal convictions and offences.

If you fail to provide personal data

Where we need to collect personal data to fulfil a contract we have with you, and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to agree with you (for example, to provide you with services). In this case, we may have to cancel a service you have with us, but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.

3. How is your personal data collected?

We use different methods to collect data from and about you including through:

- Direct interactions. You may give us your Identity and Contact by filling in forms or by corresponding with us. This includes personal data you provide when you:
 - create an account on our platform;

- download the app;
 - use app features;
 - subscribe to our services or publications;
 - request marketing to be sent to you;
 - purchase products or services or engage with an offer or promotion;
 - enter a competition, promotion, or survey; or
 - give us feedback or contact us.
- Automated technologies or interactions. As you interact with our website or app, we will automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies, server logs and other similar technologies. We may also receive Technical Data about you if you visit other websites employing our cookies. Please see our cookie policy for further details.
 - Third parties or publicly available sources. We will receive personal data about you from various third parties and public sources as set out below:
 - Technical Data from the following parties:
 - i. Analytics providers such as Google based inside and outside the UK;
 - ii. Advertising networks such as Awin based inside and outside the UK;
 - iii. Search information providers such as Google and Bing based inside and outside the UK;
 - iv. Identity and Contact Data from publicly available sources such as Companies House and the Electoral Register based inside the UK.

4. How we use your personal data

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to carry out our contract with you or to provide you with a service, offer, promotion or product that you have requested.
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.
- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.

Please refer to the Glossary to find out more about the types of lawful basis that we will rely on to process your personal data.

Generally, we do not rely on consent as a legal basis for processing your personal data although we will get your consent before sending third party direct marketing communications to you via email or text message. You have the right to withdraw consent to marketing at any time by contacting us.

Purposes for which we will use your personal data

We have set out below, in a table format, a description of all the ways we plan to use your personal data, and which of the legal bases we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.

Note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please contact us if you need details about the specific legal ground we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

Marketing

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising.

Promotional offers from us

We may use your Identity, Contact, Technical, Usage, Geolocation and Profile Data to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products, services and offers may be relevant for you (we call this marketing).

You will receive marketing communications from us if you have requested information from us or purchased goods or services or participated in promotions or offers from us and you have not opted out of receiving that marketing.

Third-party marketing

We will get your express opt-in consent before we share your personal data with any third party for marketing purposes.

Opting out

You can ask us or third parties to stop sending you marketing messages at any time by following the opt-out links on any marketing message sent to you OR by contacting us at any time.

Cookies

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this website or the app may become inaccessible or not function properly. For more information about the cookies we use, please refer to our Cookie Policy.

Change of purpose

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

5. Disclosures of your personal data

We may share your personal data with the parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table Purposes for which we will use your personal data above.

- External Third Parties as set out in the Glossary.
- Third parties identified in the table Purposes for which we will use your personal data above.
- Third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this privacy policy.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

6. International transfers

We transfer your personal data outside the UK:

- to DigitalOcean who provide our servers and other cloud services and act as processors on our behalf, with whom we have contractual arrangements in place to protect your personal data. DigitalOcean may transfer your personal data on to its sub-processors who may be based anywhere in the world; those transfers take place under the UK's International Data Transfer Agreement which sets out the arrangements required to protect your personal data. You can see full details of those arrangements in DigitalOcean's Data Processing Agreement here: <https://www.digitalocean.com/legal/data-processing-agreement>
- to OpenTable International Limited, which provides our online booking facility, and is an English company based in London that uses servers outside the UK. Its privacy policy, which states that it complies with the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework, is available here: <https://www.opentable.com/legal/privacy-policy>. Please contact us if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of the UK.
- to our software developers in Nepal under the terms of an approved appropriate arrangement, known as an International Data Transfer Agreement (or IDTA) to protect your personal data.

7. Data security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used, or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered, or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions, and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

8. Data retention

How long will you use my personal data for?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or reporting requirements. We may retain your personal data for a longer period in the event of a complaint or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation in respect to our relationship with you.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or other requirements.

Details of retention periods for distinct aspects of your personal data are available in our retention policy which you can request from us by contacting us.

In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data: see your legal rights below for further information.

In some circumstances we will anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

9. Your legal rights

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data to:

- Request access to your personal data.
- Request correction of your personal data.
- Request erasure of your personal data.
- Object to processing of your personal data.
- Request restriction of processing your personal data.
- Request transfer of your personal data.
- Right to withdraw consent.

Please consult the Glossary to find out more about these rights. If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact dataprotection@appetiteapp.uk.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive, or excessive. Alternatively, we could refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it could take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

10. Glossary

LAWFUL BASIS

Legitimate Interest includes:

- Supplying services to you and enabling you to use or receive third party services
- Protecting website and app users, employees, and other individuals and maintaining their safety, health, and welfare
- Promoting, marketing, and advertising our products and services including promotions and offers that that we run on behalf of third parties.
- Personalising communications or content within emails, on the website and in the app
- Understanding users' behaviour, activities, preferences, and needs
- Improving existing and developing new products and services
- Complying with legal and regulatory obligations
- Preventing, investigating, and detecting crime, fraud, bullying, harassment, discriminatory or other anti-social behaviour and taking action against perpetrators, including working with law enforcement agencies
- Protecting Appetite, its users, and partners, by taking appropriate legal action against third parties who have committed criminal acts, or breach their legal obligations to Appetite
- Fulfilling our duties to our users, partners, colleagues, shareholders, and other stakeholders.

Performance of Contract means carrying out our part of a contract to which you are a party or taking steps at your request before we have agreed a contract. This includes arranging for a third party to deliver services to you.

Comply with a legal obligation means processing your personal data where it is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation that we are subject to, such as keeping records and providing information to the tax authorities.

THIRD PARTIES

External Third Parties

- Those parties listed under International Transfers
- Service providers acting as processors based in the United Kingdom and India who provide IT and system administration services.
- Professional advisers acting as processors or joint controllers including lawyers, bankers, auditors, and insurers based in the United Kingdom who provide consultancy, banking, legal, insurance and accounting services.
- HM Revenue & Customs, regulators, and other authorities acting as processors or joint controllers based in the United Kingdom.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

You have the right to:

Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.

Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.

Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios:

- If you want us to establish the data's accuracy.
- Where our use of the data is unlawful, but you do not want us to erase it.
- Where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims.
- You have objected to our use of your data, but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to personal information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.
